

1850 M STREET, NW, SUITE 800
WASHINGTON, DC 20036
P 202.289.5900 • F 202.289.4141

CHLOPAK LEONARD SCHECHTER
AND ASSOCIATES

Memorandum

To Department of Justice
From Chlopak, Leonard, Schechter & Associates
Registration number 5774
Date April 24, 2009
Re Distributing Advisories for Foreign Agents

2009 APR 27 PM 3:10
CRM/ISS/REGISTRATION UNIT

Chlopak, Leonard, Schechter & Associates has been hired by the Egyptian Press and Information Office for public relations, media relations and communications. Exhibits A and B forms are in the approval process and will be submitted to the DOJ on Monday, April 27th.

Concurrently, we have begun work for our client. The attached two advisories were sent out to members of the media on April 23, 2009.

FINAL

Dear Reporter,

A distinguished expert from Egypt will be in town next week, from Monday, April 27th – Wednesday April 29th. He will be available for on-the-record conversations and interviews on the current political situation in Egypt and the regional politics of the Middle East.

Dr. Abdel Monem Said Aly is the Director of the Al Ahram Center for Political and Strategic Studies in Cairo. He is an expert on regional issues such as the Middle East Peace Process, Gaza and the Palestinian issues, and the Iran question.

Please find below some additional information about our guest:

Dr. Abdel Monem Said Aly has been the Director of the Al Ahram Center for Political and Strategic Studies in Cairo since 1994, and has worked in various positions at the Center for more than three decades. He has held research fellowships at the Brookings Institute, Harvard University, and is currently a Senior Fellow in the Crown Center for Middle East Studies at Brandeis University. He became a Senator in the Egyptian Shura Council in June 2007.

He is an expert in the Peace Process, Middle East security issues, Egypt's political system and national security and arms control policies. Since 1997 he has been the anchor for the Egyptian TV bi-weekly program Wara Al Ahdath, Behind Events. He obtained his B.A. from Cairo University and his M.A. and PH.D in Political Science from Northern Illinois University.

To schedule an interview or for more information please contact Elana Stein at estein@clsdc.com or 202-777-3517.

This material is distributed by Chlopak, Leonard, Schechter & Associates on behalf of the Egyptian Press and Information Office. Additional information is available at the Department of Justice, Washington, DC.

FINAL

Dear Reporter,

Three distinguished experts from Egypt will be in town next week, from Monday, April 27th – Wednesday April 29th. Each will be available for on-the-record conversations and interviews on the current political situation in Egypt and the regional politics of the Middle East.

The guests are Dr. Abdel Monem Said Aly, Director of the Al Ahram Center for Political and Strategic Studies in Cairo; Dr. Hossam Badrawy Chairman of the Egyptian Alliance for Transparency and Combating Corruption; and Mr. Mounir Fakhri Abdel Nour, Secretary General of the Wafd Party, the oldest opposition party in Egypt.

These guests are experts on a number of different topics relative to what you write about, including the government of Egypt, political and economic reform, human rights, and democratization.

In addition, Dr. Abdel Monem Said Aly is an expert on regional issues such as the Middle East Peace Process, Gaza and the Palestinian issues, and the Iran question.

To schedule an interview or for more information please contact Elana Stein at estein@clsdc.com or 202-777-3517.

Please find below some additional information about each of the guests:

Dr. Abdel Monem Said Aly has been the Director of the Al Ahram Center for Political and Strategic Studies in Cairo since 1994, and has worked in various positions at the Center for more than three decades. He has held research fellowships at the Brookings Institute, Harvard University, and is currently a Senior Fellow in the Crown Center for Middle East Studies at Brandeis University. He became a Senator in the Egyptian Shura Council in June 2007.

He is an expert in the Peace Process, Middle East security issues, Egypt's political system and national security and arms control policies. He has been the anchor for the Egyptian TV bi-weekly program Wara Al Ahdath, Behind Events, since 1997. He obtained his B.A. from Cairo University and his M.A. and PH.D in Political Science from Northern Illinois University.

Dr. Hossam Badrawi, has been Chairman of the Education & Scientific Research Committee for the last five years, is a member of the Upper Chamber of the Egyptian Parliament, and is a member of the Board of Governance of the NDP, the ruling political party in Egypt. He is a Founder and a member of the Executive Board of Egypt's International Economic Forum.

FINAL

Dr. Hossam is a respected and well-known physician and Professor of OB/GYN at Cairo University Medical School. He started the first health care company in Egypt in 1989 and, before that, a private health care institution (Nile Badrawi Hospital) in 1982 which is considered one of the most well-known private hospitals in Egypt.

He graduated from El Kasr El Eini Medical School, and received his doctorate degree from Wayne State University in Michigan and North Western University in Chicago. In 2008, he received an honorary PhD in Science from Sunderland University in the UK for his outstanding work in higher education reform in the Middle East.

Dr. Hossam has written more than 120 research papers and runs a number of NGOs dealing with youth and health.

Mr. Mounir Fakhri Abdel Nour is a member of the Pan-African Parliament from Egypt and heads the New Wafd Party in the Egyptian Parliament.

He graduated from Cairo University, is on the Faculty of Economics & Political studies and obtained a M.A. degree in Economics from the American University in Cairo.

Mr. Mounir is the founder of the Egyptian Finance Company and of the Egyptian French Agricultural Society. He is a member of the Pan-African Parliament, the Egyptian National Council for Human Rights, the Board of Directors of the Egyptian Federation of Industries and the Egyptian Competition Authority.

This material is distributed by Chlopak, Leonard, Schechter & Associates on behalf of the Egyptian Press and Information Office. Additional information is available at the Department of Justice, Washington, DC.

CHLOPAK LEONARD SCHECHTER
AND ASSOCIATES

Memorandum

To Department of Justice
From Chlopak, Leonard, Schechter & Associates
Registration number 5774
Date April 24, 2009
Re Distributing Advisories for Foreign Agents

Chlopak, Leonard, Schechter & Associates has been hired by the Egyptian Press and Information Office for public relations, media relations and communications. Exhibits A and B forms are in the approval process and will be submitted to the DOJ on Monday, April 27th.

Concurrently, we have begun work for our client. The attached two advisories were sent out to members of the media on April 23, 2009.

2009 APR 27 PM 3:09
CRM/ISS/REGISTRATION UNIT

FINAL

Dear Reporter,

A distinguished expert from Egypt will be in town next week, from Monday, April 27th – Wednesday April 29th. He will be available for on-the-record conversations and interviews on the current political situation in Egypt and the regional politics of the Middle East.

Dr. Abdel Monem Said Aly is the Director of the Al Ahram Center for Political and Strategic Studies in Cairo. He is an expert on regional issues such as the Middle East Peace Process, Gaza and the Palestinian issues, and the Iran question.

Please find below some additional information about our guest:

Dr. Abdel Monem Said Aly has been the Director of the Al Ahram Center for Political and Strategic Studies in Cairo since 1994, and has worked in various positions at the Center for more than three decades. He has held research fellowships at the Brookings Institute, Harvard University, and is currently a Senior Fellow in the Crown Center for Middle East Studies at Brandeis University. He became a Senator in the Egyptian Shura Council in June 2007.

He is an expert in the Peace Process, Middle East security issues, Egypt's political system and national security and arms control policies. Since 1997 he has been the anchor for the Egyptian TV bi-weekly program Wara Al Ahdath, Behind Events. He obtained his B.A. from Cairo University and his M.A. and PH.D in Political Science from Northern Illinois University.

To schedule an interview or for more information please contact Elana Stein at estein@clsdc.com or 202-777-3517.

This material is distributed by Chlopak, Leonard, Schechter & Associates on behalf of the Egyptian Press and Information Office. Additional information is available at the Department of Justice, Washington, DC.

Dear Reporter,

Three distinguished experts from Egypt will be in town next week, from Monday, April 27th – Wednesday April 29th. Each will be available for on-the-record conversations and interviews on the current political situation in Egypt and the regional politics of the Middle East.

The guests are Dr. Abdel Monem Said Aly, Director of the Al Ahram Center for Political and Strategic Studies in Cairo; Dr. Hossam Badrawy Chairman of the Egyptian Alliance for Transparency and Combating Corruption; and Mr. Mounir Fakhri Abdel Nour, Secretary General of the Wafd Party, the oldest opposition party in Egypt.

These guests are experts on a number of different topics relative to what you write about, including the government of Egypt, political and economic reform, human rights, and democratization.

In addition, Dr. Abdel Monem Said Aly is an expert on regional issues such as the Middle East Peace Process, Gaza and the Palestinian issues, and the Iran question.

To schedule an interview or for more information please contact Elana Stein at estein@clsdc.com or 202-777-3517.

Please find below some additional information about each of the guests:

Dr. Abdel Monem Said Aly has been the Director of the Al Ahram Center for Political and Strategic Studies in Cairo since 1994, and has worked in various positions at the Center for more than three decades. He has held research fellowships at the Brookings Institute, Harvard University, and is currently a Senior Fellow in the Crown Center for Middle East Studies at Brandeis University. He became a Senator in the Egyptian Shura Council in June 2007.

He is an expert in the Peace Process, Middle East security issues, Egypt's political system and national security and arms control policies. He has been the anchor for the Egyptian TV bi-weekly program Wara Al Ahdath, Behind Events, since 1997. He obtained his B.A. from Cairo University and his M.A. and PH.D in Political Science from Northern Illinois University.

Dr. Hossam Badrawi, has been Chairman of the Education & Scientific Research Committee for the last five years, is a member of the Upper Chamber of the Egyptian Parliament, and is a member of the Board of Governance of the NDP, the ruling political party in Egypt. He is a Founder and a member of the Executive Board of Egypt's International Economic Forum.

FINAL

Dr. Hossam is a respected and well-known physician and Professor of OB/GYN at Cairo University Medical School. He started the first health care company in Egypt in 1989 and, before that, a private health care institution (Nile Badrawi Hospital) in 1982 which is considered one of the most well-known private hospitals in Egypt.

He graduated from El Kasr El Eini Medical School, and received his doctorate degree from Wayne State University in Michigan and North Western University in Chicago. In 2008, he received an honorary PhD in Science from Sunderland University in the UK for his outstanding work in higher education reform in the Middle East.

Dr. Hossam has written more than 120 research papers and runs a number of NGOs dealing with youth and health.

Mr. Mounir Fakhri Abdel Nour is a member of the Pan-African Parliament from Egypt and heads the New Wafd Party in the Egyptian Parliament.

He graduated from Cairo University, is on the Faculty of Economics & Political studies and obtained a M.A. degree in Economics from the American University in Cairo.

Mr. Mounir is the founder of the Egyptian Finance Company and of the Egyptian French Agricultural Society. He is a member of the Pan-African Parliament, the Egyptian National Council for Human Rights, the Board of Directors of the Egyptian Federation of Industries and the Egyptian Competition Authority.

This material is distributed by Chlopak, Leonard, Schechter & Associates on behalf of the Egyptian Press and Information Office. Additional information is available at the Department of Justice, Washington, DC.